	:	MERCER COUNTY - LAW DIVISION
Plaintiff,	:
	:	CIVIL ACTION
vs.	:
AMAZON.COM SERVICES, INC. and	:	DOCKET NO:
JOHN DOES 1-5 AND 6-10.	:
Defendants.	:	COMPLAINT AND JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff, Robert Harper, residing in the State of New Jersey, brings the following claims against Defendants:

Preliminary Statement

This matter is opened to the court pursuant to the New Jersey Wage Payment Law (“WPL”) and its prohibition against retaliating against an employee for engaging in protected conduct under that law.

Identification of Parties

1. Plaintiff Robert Harper is, at all relevant times herein, a resident of the State of New Jersey and former employee of Defendant as an Amazon Flex Driver.

2. Defendant Amazon.com Services, Inc. (“Amazon”) was, at all relevant times herein, a corporation operating in the State of New Jersey with its service of process address at Princeton South Corporate Center, Suite 160, 100 Charles Ewing Boulevard, Ewing, New Jersey 08628.

3. Defendants John Does 1-5 and 6-10, currently unidentified, are individuals and/or entities who, on the basis of their direct acts or on the basis of respondeat superior, are answerable to the Plaintiff for the acts set forth herein.

General Allegations

4. Plaintiff and similarly situated employees employed on or after the date three years immediately preceding the filing date of this Complaint as Amazon Flex Drivers have been willfully misclassified as “contractors” instead of as employees and denied minimum wage, denied overtime for hours worked in excess of 40 per week, have had tips unlawfully withheld and have been denied payment of agreed upon wages due for all hours worked.

5. Plaintiff worked as an Amazon Flex driver from April 26, 2019 through August 13, 2019.

6. During the time Plaintiff worked as an Amazon driver, Plaintiff signed a contract that stated Plaintiff would receive a minimum of $18.00 per hour, and would receive 100% of customer tips Plaintiff received.

7. Amazon provides delivery service of consumer electronic goods to its customers on a nationwide basis, including in the State of New Jersey.

8. Amazon contracts directly with Amazon Flex drivers in the State of New Jersey to conduct these deliveries.

9. Although classified as independent contractors, Amazon Flex Drivers are actually employees within the meaning of the New Jersey Wage Payment Law and New Jersey Wage and Hour Law.

10. Amazon Flex Drivers receive unpaid training regarding how to interact with customers and how to handle issues they encounter while making deliveries.

11. Amazon Flex Drivers must follow Amazon's instructions regarding where to make deliveries, orders, and which route to take.

12. Amazon Flex Drivers can be penalized or terminated for missing scheduled shifts.

13. Amazon Flex Drivers also must follow requirements and rules imposed on them by Amazon and are subject to termination, based on Amazon's discretion.

14. Amazon Flex Drivers can be disciplined or terminated for their failure to adhere to Amazon's requirements including, but not limited to, rules regarding their conduct with customers, their timeliness in making deliveries, their scanning of packages, and their conduct when picking up or returning packages to the warehouse.

15. Amazon Flex Drivers provide their own vehicle, but are required to place an Amazon sign on the vehicle.

16. Amazon Flex Drivers' services are fully integrated with Amazon's businesses.

17. Amazon Flex Drivers are told they will be paid by the hour; however, the Amazon Flex Drivers are actually paid by the "block".

18. Amazon Flex Drivers are given a predetermined amount of packages, determined by Amazon, and those packages are supposed to be delivered within a two hour block of time.

19. Whether the drivers deliver the packages before the two hour block of time, or after the two hour block, the drivers are paid the same amount of money.

20. During the time Plaintiff worked for Amazon, Plaintiff would arrive at the warehouse to pick up his packages and the packages would not be ready.

21. On other occasions, Plaintiff would arrive at the warehouse to pick up his packages and there would be a malfunction with scanning and electronic equipment, and Plaintiff would have to wait for his packages.

22. On other occasions, Plaintiff would arrive at Amazon to pick up his packages, and Amazon employees would not be able to open the doors or access his packages because certain employees arrived late.

23. These acts, along with other incidences that were not the fault of the Plaintiff, often caused Plaintiff to have to begin his “block” late.

24. Plaintiff would then take longer than the two hour block of time to deliver the packages.

25. When Plaintiff would take longer than the two hour block of time to deliver the package, Plaintiff would submit a request to Amazon for additional compensation as a result of the additional work that he did.

26. However, on numerous occasions, Amazon either failed to compensate Plaintiff the amount that he was due, or failed to compensate Plaintiff at all for the additional hours he worked.

27. Plaintiff was also told by customers on multiple occasions that they tipped Plaintiff electronically.

28. However, Plaintiff was not given the tips by Amazon.

29. Plaintiff complained to Amazon about all of the problems listed in this complaint.

30. Those complaints included, but were not limited to, on June 8, 2019, Plaintiff complained that his additional time request had been denied and he was therefore earning less than $18.00 per hour.

31. On August 12, 2019, Plaintiff complained again that his compensation was short and he had not been refunded for tolls per Defendant’s agreement with drivers.

32. Around the same time, Plaintiff complained by email that he was not receiving tips in his compensation.

33. Plaintiff and other Amazon Flex Drivers were also not compensated for necessary business expenses that they must pay such as gas and car maintenance.

34. Defendant terminated Plaintiff on August 14, 2019, approximately two days after Plaintiff's last complaint as a result of his complaints about Defendant's failure to properly compensate Plaintiff.

35. At the time Defendant terminated Plaintiff, Plaintiff was capable of performing all of the essential functions of his job.

36. Plaintiff engaged in protected activity pursuant to the WPL, when he complained about Defendant's conduct outlined above, which he reasonably believed violated the WPL.

37. Subsequent to Plaintiff engaging in this activity, Plaintiff was subjected to adverse employment actions including, but not limited to, Defendant terminating his employment.

38. A determinative and/or motivating factor in the adverse employment actions taken against Plaintiff was the fact that he engaged in the protected conduct outlined above.

39. Defendant's adverse employment actions were intentional, purposeful, willful, and egregious retaliation and performed by members of upper management making punitive damages warranted.

40. The fact that Plaintiff was directly retaliated against as a result of having engaged in protected conduct under WPL entitles her to compensatory damages under WPL as described below.

COUNT I

Violation of the Wage Payment Law for Retaliation

41. Plaintiff hereby repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 40, as though fully set forth herein.

42. Plaintiff engaged in protected conduct under the WPL when he made complaints that Defendant complained in conduct that violated the WPL as outlined at length above.

43. Subsequent to Plaintiff engaging in protected conduct, Defendant subjected Plaintiff to adverse employment actions because of that conduct include, but not limited to, terminating Plaintiff from his employment.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendants jointly, severally and in the alternative, together with compensatory damages, including emotional distress and personal hardship, interest, cost of suit, attorneys' fees, enhanced attorneys' fees, equitable back pay, equitable front pay, liquidated "treble" damages as allowed under the WPL, equitable reinstatement, equitable reinstatement or promotion and any other relief the Court deems equitable and just.

COUNT II

Request for Equitable Relief

44. Plaintiff hereby repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 43 as though fully set forth herein.

45. Plaintiff requests the following equitable remedies and relief in this matter.

46. Plaintiff requests a declaration by this Court that the practices contested herein violate New Jersey law as set forth herein.

47. Plaintiff requests that this Court order the defendants to cease and desist all conduct inconsistent with the claims made herein going forward, both as to the specific plaintiff and as to all other individuals similarly situated.

48. To the extent that plaintiff was separated from employment and to the extent that the separation is contested herein, plaintiff requests equitable reinstatement, with equitable back pay and front pay.

49. Plaintiff requests, that in the event that equitable reinstatement and/or equitable back pay and equitable front pay is ordered to the plaintiff, that all lost wages, benefits, fringe benefits and other remuneration is also equitably restored to the plaintiff.

50. Plaintiff requests that the Court equitably order the defendants to pay costs and attorneys' fees along with statutory and required enhancements to said attorneys' fees.

51. Plaintiff requests that the Court order the defendants to alter their files so as to expunge any reference to which the Court finds violates the statutes implicated herein.

52. Plaintiff requests that the Court do such other equity as is reasonable, appropriate and just.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff demands judgment against the defendants jointly, severally and in the alternative, together with compensatory damages, punitive damages, interest, cost of suit, attorneys' fees, enhanced attorneys' fees, equitable back pay, equitable front pay, equitable reinstatement, and any other relief the Court deems equitable and just.
